

I am asking you not to make any amendments to the telephone privacy rules that would lessen the rules set forth by the State of Indiana. I used to dread when the phone rang, solicitors and sales people called me at least 3 times a night, at times as late as 9:30pm. Putting my name and number on the "no call" list was the best thing I have ever done to ensure peace and quiet at home.